

WHITTALL THE MARK OF QUALITY RUGS Just Arrived

We announce the arrival of another shipment of the world-famed Whittall Rugs. This, together with a shipment but recently received from the same mills and many other desirable makes found in our stock makes our Rug Department the most complete it has ever been.

We cordially invite your inspection.

Sole agents for Barre and Montpelier

B. W. Hooker & Co.

UNDERTAKERS FUNERAL DIRECTORS
LICENSED EMBALMERS
HOSPITAL AMBULANCE SERVICE
DAY OR NIGHT PHONE 87-11

WASHINGTON.

Ira C. Caley, who has been quite ill, is said to be holding his own.

Harold Bigelow, Mrs. G. L. Wood and several others are confined to their beds with the prevailing epidemic.

Mrs. Sylvia Waterman is reported as being very sick, which, with her advanced age, makes her condition quite serious.

Mrs. L. D. Thilston is thought to be a little more comfortable at this writing.

Mrs. F. C. Huntington was brought Saturday from the hospital to her home here.

Mrs. Eliza Dickerman is quite sick, as is also Mrs. Arthur Blake and the little son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Caldwell.

G. E. Huntington is on the gain.

Eleanor Smith is improving so he is about the house some now.

MARSHFIELD

At Marshfield opera house Wednesday, Feb. 2, Lyford & Perry's big seven-reel moving picture entertainment. A splendid program. We assure you a pleasant evening.—Adv.

SOUTH BARRE.

The grange annual young and old folks' dance and chicken-pie supper Friday, Feb. 4. Opera house orchestra. Bill, $1.25 per couple.

EAST BARRE

Regular meeting of W. W. C. U. No. 19, on Thursday evening at 7:30. Work, warriers and chief's degrees.

Regular meeting of Court Barre, No. 3, 3:17, I. O. F. at Knights of Columbus hall to-night at 7:30. Per order R. S.

TALK OF THE TOWN

New wash goods at Abbott's. Darwin Cooley of Waterbury was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. L. Carr of Keith avenue returned to-day from a few days' visit in Boston.

Auction to-night, Kenyon store, balance stock must be closed at once. D. A. Perry, auctioneer.

Miss Jeanette Granger resumed work in the People's Shoe store this morning after a week's illness.

United States District Marshal C. C. Graves of Waterbury was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

C. E. Pressley of Lowell, Mass., a former resident of Barre, is spending a few days with friends in the city.

Victor Norberg of Peekskill, N. Y., arrived in the city yesterday and expects to be employed here for the rest of the winter.

William Dewey has moved his household goods from 18 West street into apartments which he has leased on Brook street.

Members and prospective members of the Granite City Quilting club are to have a special meeting in their pavilion this evening at 7 o'clock.

A special meeting of the Granite City Quilting club will be held in the club pavilion Tuesday evening, Feb. 1, at 7 o'clock. The presence of all members and prospective members is urgently desired.

Carl Burgess, a recent graduate from the Bryant & Stratton school in Boston, is stopping at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Burgess of the Montpelier road. He has a position in the office of the Jones Brothers company.

Charles H. Northrop of Merchant street, who has been detained at home for the past five weeks by illness, was able to resume charge of his trucking business yesterday. Early in January Mr. Northrop was threatened with pneumonia, but latterly he has been making steady progress toward recovery.

The hospital cookbooks have arrived and are now on sale at the following places, at 50c per copy: Tilden Shoe store, Martin's Book store, Mrs. W. F. Shepard's, D. C. Howard's store, South Barre, of Mrs. Randall at the library in Williamstown, of Mrs. Roach at Graniteville and of Mrs. C. H. Lermond at East Barre.

John Hussey of River street, arrested on the complaint of members of his family yesterday, pleaded guilty before Magistrate H. W. Scott to an intoxication charge and paid a $5 fine and costs. Officer Harry Gamble went to River street and arrested Hussey on a warrant issued at the request of Grand Juror William Wisbart.

The third of a series of mid-winter ice races is scheduled to be held on the Wisconsin river in Montpelier Saturday, Feb. 5. There are to be three races, two class A races for horses that have never beaten 41 seconds, and a three-minute class. All purses are to be $25 and admission fees are to be 5c per cent. The races are to start at 1:30.

"Signs of spring" were observed on Depot square this morning when two youngsters appeared with their pockets stuffed with marbles. In spite of the small pools of water in the depression in the sidewalk one of them proceeded to "set up his alley" in the most approved style and, considering his opponent's lack of practice, seemed in a fair way to enjoy a profitable morning.

To-night in the rooms of the Apollo club in Montpelier the Vincinella and Apollo clubs will meet for the second of a series of four tournaments in billiards, pool and whist. Inasmuch as a majority of points were won by the Vincinella club when the two clubs met in this city in December, the Barre clubmen are a leg ahead of their opponents. Barre and Montpelier Knights of Columbus clubmen will also meet to-night for the first of a series of six tournaments in pool and cribbage. Barre council, No. 401, is to entertain the Montpelier knights at its clubrooms in the Scampini building. All Barre knights who are to participate in the matches are asked to meet in the club at 7 o'clock.

Barre people contributed $90 to the Jewish relief fund, according to figures made public by Joseph Kovalsky of Forsythe place, who was delegated by the central committee of New York to solicit subscriptions in Barre and the immediate vicinity of this city. With the aid of a number of young women Mr. Kovalsky canvassed the entire city, the territory being divided into wards for the convenience of the solicitors. In spite of an unavoidable delay in getting certificates and stamps, a delay that made it necessary to postpone the soliciting until the day after the time designated by President Wilson, Mr. Kovalsky and his assistants found many people who were willing to respond. The money collected in Barre will go to swell a fund designed for the relief of 9,000,000 Jews suffering from the exigencies of war.

Walter H. Cox of Dover, N. H., a well known grand circuit driver, who with Mrs. Cox has been a guest of Mayor J. M. Boutwell of Montpelier for a few days, called on friends in Barre Sunday and Monday.

Postal clerks who went down to defeat in the recent bowling match for the championship of the federal building entertained their victorious opponents at an enjoyable banquet at Hotel Barre last evening at 8:30 o'clock. Manager J. V. Rowan provided the victors and vanquished with a layout that made the latter forget their defeat and served to quiet, for a time, at least, the natural expressions of exultation manifested by the winners. Capt. James T. Kenefick, Harry Houghton, William Craig and James R. Mackay, having lost their title in the alley finals, acted as hosts, while Capt. John L. Bialie, George W. Gorman, Frank E. Robinson, James Leve and Thomas Garrity, Jr., were the guests. After a very engaging gastronomic contest in which the losers proved that victories may be won elsewhere than on the alleys, there was a brief afterdinner program. Postmaster Gorman presided and remarks were made by both captains as well as some of the men in the ranks.

Members and prospective members of the Granite City Quilting club are to have a special meeting in their pavilion this evening at 7 o'clock.

A special meeting of the Granite City Quilting club will be held in the club pavilion Tuesday evening, Feb. 1, at 7 o'clock. The presence of all members and prospective members is urgently desired.

Carl Burgess, a recent graduate from the Bryant & Stratton school in Boston, is stopping at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Burgess of the Montpelier road. He has a position in the office of the Jones Brothers company.

Charles H. Northrop of Merchant street, who has been detained at home for the past five weeks by illness, was able to resume charge of his trucking business yesterday. Early in January Mr. Northrop was threatened with pneumonia, but latterly he has been making steady progress toward recovery.

The hospital cookbooks have arrived and are now on sale at the following places, at 50c per copy: Tilden Shoe store, Martin's Book store, Mrs. W. F. Shepard's, D. C. Howard's store, South Barre, of Mrs. Randall at the library in Williamstown, of Mrs. Roach at Graniteville and of Mrs. C. H. Lermond at East Barre.

John Hussey of River street, arrested on the complaint of members of his family yesterday, pleaded guilty before Magistrate H. W. Scott to an intoxication charge and paid a $5 fine and costs. Officer Harry Gamble went to River street and arrested Hussey on a warrant issued at the request of Grand Juror William Wisbart.

The third of a series of mid-winter ice races is scheduled to be held on the Wisconsin river in Montpelier Saturday, Feb. 5. There are to be three races, two class A races for horses that have never beaten 41 seconds, and a three-minute class. All purses are to be $25 and admission fees are to be 5c per cent. The races are to start at 1:30.

"Signs of spring" were observed on Depot square this morning when two youngsters appeared with their pockets stuffed with marbles. In spite of the small pools of water in the depression in the sidewalk one of them proceeded to "set up his alley" in the most approved style and, considering his opponent's lack of practice, seemed in a fair way to enjoy a profitable morning.

To-night in the rooms of the Apollo club in Montpelier the Vincinella and Apollo clubs will meet for the second of a series of four tournaments in billiards, pool and whist. Inasmuch as a majority of points were won by the Vincinella club when the two clubs met in this city in December, the Barre clubmen are a leg ahead of their opponents. Barre and Montpelier Knights of Columbus clubmen will also meet to-night for the first of a series of six tournaments in pool and cribbage. Barre council, No. 401, is to entertain the Montpelier knights at its clubrooms in the Scampini building. All Barre knights who are to participate in the matches are asked to meet in the club at 7 o'clock.

Barre people contributed $90 to the Jewish relief fund, according to figures made public by Joseph Kovalsky of Forsythe place, who was delegated by the central committee of New York to solicit subscriptions in Barre and the immediate vicinity of this city. With the aid of a number of young women Mr. Kovalsky canvassed the entire city, the territory being divided into wards for the convenience of the solicitors. In spite of an unavoidable delay in getting certificates and stamps, a delay that made it necessary to postpone the soliciting until the day after the time designated by President Wilson, Mr. Kovalsky and his assistants found many people who were willing to respond. The money collected in Barre will go to swell a fund designed for the relief of 9,000,000 Jews suffering from the exigencies of war.

Walter H. Cox of Dover, N. H., a well known grand circuit driver, who with Mrs. Cox has been a guest of Mayor J. M. Boutwell of Montpelier for a few days, called on friends in Barre Sunday and Monday.

Postal clerks who went down to defeat in the recent bowling match for the championship of the federal building entertained their victorious opponents at an enjoyable banquet at Hotel Barre last evening at 8:30 o'clock. Manager J. V. Rowan provided the victors and vanquished with a layout that made the latter forget their defeat and served to quiet, for a time, at least, the natural expressions of exultation manifested by the winners. Capt. James T. Kenefick, Harry Houghton, William Craig and James R. Mackay, having lost their title in the alley finals, acted as hosts, while Capt. John L. Bialie, George W. Gorman, Frank E. Robinson, James Leve and Thomas Garrity, Jr., were the guests. After a very engaging gastronomic contest in which the losers proved that victories may be won elsewhere than on the alleys, there was a brief afterdinner program. Postmaster Gorman presided and remarks were made by both captains as well as some of the men in the ranks.

Members and prospective members of the Granite City Quilting club are to have a special meeting in their pavilion this evening at 7 o'clock.

A special meeting of the Granite City Quilting club will be held in the club pavilion Tuesday evening, Feb. 1, at 7 o'clock. The presence of all members and prospective members is urgently desired.

Carl Burgess, a recent graduate from the Bryant & Stratton school in Boston, is stopping at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Burgess of the Montpelier road. He has a position in the office of the Jones Brothers company.

Charles H. Northrop of Merchant street, who has been detained at home for the past five weeks by illness, was able to resume charge of his trucking business yesterday. Early in January Mr. Northrop was threatened with pneumonia, but latterly he has been making steady progress toward recovery.

The hospital cookbooks have arrived and are now on sale at the following places, at 50c per copy: Tilden Shoe store, Martin's Book store, Mrs. W. F. Shepard's, D. C. Howard's store, South Barre, of Mrs. Randall at the library in Williamstown, of Mrs. Roach at Graniteville and of Mrs. C. H. Lermond at East Barre.

John Hussey of River street, arrested on the complaint of members of his family yesterday, pleaded guilty before Magistrate H. W. Scott to an intoxication charge and paid a $5 fine and costs. Officer Harry Gamble went to River street and arrested Hussey on a warrant issued at the request of Grand Juror William Wisbart.

The third of a series of mid-winter ice races is scheduled to be held on the Wisconsin river in Montpelier Saturday, Feb. 5. There are to be three races, two class A races for horses that have never beaten 41 seconds, and a three-minute class. All purses are to be $25 and admission fees are to be 5c per cent. The races are to start at 1:30.

"Signs of spring" were observed on Depot square this morning when two youngsters appeared with their pockets stuffed with marbles. In spite of the small pools of water in the depression in the sidewalk one of them proceeded to "set up his alley" in the most approved style and, considering his opponent's lack of practice, seemed in a fair way to enjoy a profitable morning.

To-night in the rooms of the Apollo club in Montpelier the Vincinella and Apollo clubs will meet for the second of a series of four tournaments in billiards, pool and whist. Inasmuch as a majority of points were won by the Vincinella club when the two clubs met in this city in December, the Barre clubmen are a leg ahead of their opponents. Barre and Montpelier Knights of Columbus clubmen will also meet to-night for the first of a series of six tournaments in pool and cribbage. Barre council, No. 401, is to entertain the Montpelier knights at its clubrooms in the Scampini building. All Barre knights who are to participate in the matches are asked to meet in the club at 7 o'clock.

Barre people contributed $90 to the Jewish relief fund, according to figures made public by Joseph Kovalsky of Forsythe place, who was delegated by the central committee of New York to solicit subscriptions in Barre and the immediate vicinity of this city. With the aid of a number of young women Mr. Kovalsky canvassed the entire city, the territory being divided into wards for the convenience of the solicitors. In spite of an unavoidable delay in getting certificates and stamps, a delay that made it necessary to postpone the soliciting until the day after the time designated by President Wilson, Mr. Kovalsky and his assistants found many people who were willing to respond. The money collected in Barre will go to swell a fund designed for the relief of 9,000,000 Jews suffering from the exigencies of war.

Walter H. Cox of Dover, N. H., a well known grand circuit driver, who with Mrs. Cox has been a guest of Mayor J. M. Boutwell of Montpelier for a few days, called on friends in Barre Sunday and Monday.

Postal clerks who went down to defeat in the recent bowling match for the championship of the federal building entertained their victorious opponents at an enjoyable banquet at Hotel Barre last evening at 8:30 o'clock. Manager J. V. Rowan provided the victors and vanquished with a layout that made the latter forget their defeat and served to quiet, for a time, at least, the natural expressions of exultation manifested by the winners. Capt. James T. Kenefick, Harry Houghton, William Craig and James R. Mackay, having lost their title in the alley finals, acted as hosts, while Capt. John L. Bialie, George W. Gorman, Frank E. Robinson, James Leve and Thomas Garrity, Jr., were the guests. After a very engaging gastronomic contest in which the losers proved that victories may be won elsewhere than on the alleys, there was a brief afterdinner program. Postmaster Gorman presided and remarks were made by both captains as well as some of the men in the ranks.

Members and prospective members of the Granite City Quilting club are to have a special meeting in their pavilion this evening at 7 o'clock.

A special meeting of the Granite City Quilting club will be held in the club pavilion Tuesday evening, Feb. 1, at 7 o'clock. The presence of all members and prospective members is urgently desired.

Carl Burgess, a recent graduate from the Bryant & Stratton school in Boston, is stopping at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Burgess of the Montpelier road. He has a position in the office of the Jones Brothers company.

Charles H. Northrop of Merchant street, who has been detained at home for the past five weeks by illness, was able to resume charge of his trucking business yesterday. Early in January Mr. Northrop was threatened with pneumonia, but latterly he has been making steady progress toward recovery.

The hospital cookbooks have arrived and are now on sale at the following places, at 50c per copy: Tilden Shoe store, Martin's Book store, Mrs. W. F. Shepard's, D. C. Howard's store, South Barre, of Mrs. Randall at the library in Williamstown, of Mrs. Roach at Graniteville and of Mrs. C. H. Lermond at East Barre.

John Hussey of River street, arrested on the complaint of members of his family yesterday, pleaded guilty before Magistrate H. W. Scott to an intoxication charge and paid a $5 fine and costs. Officer Harry Gamble went to River street and arrested Hussey on a warrant issued at the request of Grand Juror William Wisbart.

The third of a series of mid-winter ice races is scheduled to be held on the Wisconsin river in Montpelier Saturday, Feb. 5. There are to be three races, two class A races for horses that have never beaten 41 seconds, and a three-minute class. All purses are to be $25 and admission fees are to be 5c per cent. The races are to start at 1:30.

"Signs of spring" were observed on Depot square this morning when two youngsters appeared with their pockets stuffed with marbles. In spite of the small pools of water in the depression in the sidewalk one of them proceeded to "set up his alley" in the most approved style and, considering his opponent's lack of practice, seemed in a fair way to enjoy a profitable morning.

To-night in the rooms of the Apollo club in Montpelier the Vincinella and Apollo clubs will meet for the second of a series of four tournaments in billiards, pool and whist. Inasmuch as a majority of points were won by the Vincinella club when the two clubs met in this city in December, the Barre clubmen are a leg ahead of their opponents. Barre and Montpelier Knights of Columbus clubmen will also meet to-night for the first of a series of six tournaments in pool and cribbage. Barre council, No. 401, is to entertain the Montpelier knights at its clubrooms in the Scampini building. All Barre knights who are to participate in the matches are asked to meet in the club at 7 o'clock.

Barre people contributed $90 to the Jewish relief fund, according to figures made public by Joseph Kovalsky of Forsythe place, who was delegated by the central committee of New York to solicit subscriptions in Barre and the immediate vicinity of this city. With the aid of a number of young women Mr. Kovalsky canvassed the entire city, the territory being divided into wards for the convenience of the solicitors. In spite of an unavoidable delay in getting certificates and stamps, a delay that made it necessary to postpone the soliciting until the day after the time designated by President Wilson, Mr. Kovalsky and his assistants found many people who were willing to respond. The money collected in Barre will go to swell a fund designed for the relief of 9,000,000 Jews suffering from the exigencies of war.

Walter H. Cox of Dover, N. H., a well known grand circuit driver, who with Mrs. Cox has been a guest of Mayor J. M. Boutwell of Montpelier for a few days, called on friends in Barre Sunday and Monday.

Postal clerks who went down to defeat in the recent bowling match for the championship of the federal building entertained their victorious opponents at an enjoyable banquet at Hotel Barre last evening at 8:30 o'clock. Manager J. V. Rowan provided the victors and vanquished with a layout that made the latter forget their defeat and served to quiet, for a time, at least, the natural expressions of exultation manifested by the winners. Capt. James T. Kenefick, Harry Houghton, William Craig and James R. Mackay, having lost their title in the alley finals, acted as hosts, while Capt. John L. Bialie, George W. Gorman, Frank E. Robinson, James Leve and Thomas Garrity, Jr., were the guests. After a very engaging gastronomic contest in which the losers proved that victories may be won elsewhere than on the alleys, there was a brief afterdinner program. Postmaster Gorman presided and remarks were made by both captains as well as some of the men in the ranks.

Members and prospective members of the Granite City Quilting club are to have a special meeting in their pavilion this evening at 7 o'clock.

A special meeting of the Granite City Quilting club will be held in the club pavilion Tuesday evening, Feb. 1, at 7 o'clock. The presence of all members and prospective members is urgently desired.

Carl Burgess, a recent graduate from the Bryant & Stratton school in Boston, is stopping at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Burgess of the Montpelier road. He has a position in the office of the Jones Brothers company.

Charles H. Northrop of Merchant street, who has been detained at home for the past five weeks by illness, was able to resume charge of his trucking business yesterday. Early in January Mr. Northrop was threatened with pneumonia, but latterly he has been making steady progress toward recovery.

The hospital cookbooks have arrived and are now on sale at the following places, at 50c per copy: Tilden Shoe store, Martin's Book store, Mrs. W. F. Shepard's, D. C. Howard's store, South Barre, of Mrs. Randall at the library in Williamstown, of Mrs. Roach at Graniteville and of Mrs. C. H. Lermond at East Barre.

A. P. ABBOTT CO.

A. P. ABBOTT CO.

A. P. ABBOTT CO.

A. P. ABBOTT CO.

RENFREW DEVONSHIRE CLOTH

TUB PROOF and SUN PROOF

Silks

A beautiful lot of new Yard-Wide Silks. These are all very best Silks, with colors fast. A little later colors of all kinds of goods will be questionable. No manufacturer will dare to warrant all colors this season, on account of shortage in German dyes.

Before this season is past, you will have more trouble with fading colors than you have had altogether in the past ten years.

Goods that you buy now will be all right. We know what will be coming later, so speak of it now, that you will know what to expect.

Beautiful lot of new Wash Silks, so much used for waists.

New Pussy Willow Silks at $1.75 per yard.

New Yard-Wide Messalines that later will be $1.25, now in fast colors at $1.00 per yard.

Chiffon Taffetas will be good—yes, very good—these, in fine quality, at $1.25 per yard.

See our Silk window for latest Novelties.

New Wash Goods

Lots of kinds here that we cannot get the second order of to sell at these prices.

Our Endurance Cloth in all colors is one of our best at the price—12 1/2c. This later will, in part of the colors, have to be 15c or more.

Renfrew Devonshire Cloth, 32 inches wide, at 18c per yard, is one of our very best. Send for samples.

Marvel Cloth—This is new; is a plain poplin effect. Comes in all colors, such as Pink, Rose, Copenhagen, Light Blue, Medium Blue, Tan, Lavender, and White, and sells at 15c per yard.

We have a nice assortment of Figured and Stripe Voiles. These are very pretty. They make some of our most stylish dresses, made up with fine laces. There is nothing better.

You can order any of these goods by mail. We pay the parcel post. You will like this way of shopping. Try it once.

These Are Interesting Values

We are putting prices on what we have left in winter merchandise to clean them up in the next few weeks. While you have three good winter months to wear winter garments, we must clean up just such merchandise to make room for our spring stocks, which we must have here when you want them.

The prices we are putting on a lot of Suits should appeal to those who want warm clothes to finish out the season. Many of them are all right for spring wear, but we must turn them into money to pay our spring stock.

At $6.98 are a few odd Suits in quantities that are good, and the styles are not so much different than the new spring models.

At $9.98 are about 20 Suits in plain colors, such as Poppins, Gabardine, and Mixtures. Are qualities that sold at from $18.00 to $25.00 and were good values at those prices. Now only $9.98.

Ladies' Warm Coats

We have a couple of racks of odd Coats that we are putting out at prices that will be interesting to any who want a good warm Coat for the rest of the season.

These Coats are mostly in medium sizes. Are Coats that are made in the season's best styles from cloths that are made for service.

At $3.98 are a few odd garments in quantities that sold for $18.00.

At $4.98 are a few good Coat values that are worth four times the price asked.

At one-half price are a lot of odd Coats in quantities and styles that are the season's best. Are Coats that sold at from $10.00 to $25.00 and were extra good values. Now to close at from $5.00 to $12.50. If you want a good garment, see these values.

We have a few odd Coats of our latest models, that we cannot duplicate, that we are closing at much less than the regular prices.

CHILDREN'S SPRING DRESSES should interest any who have children to sew for, as here is a line of Dresses that are made from the finest of materials, in style and workmanship that are the best.

The Dresses that we are selling for $1.00 are real values. The goods alone would cost nearly that amount, and they are made and finished as you would make them yourself.

We have a Dress that we are selling at $1.50, that is surely worth much more in these Dress models. In sizes from 6 to 14 years.

The Daylight Store

TALK OF THE TOWN

Notice! All kinds of stove repairs at E. A. Prindle & Co.'s, Pearl street.

For Sale—Several fine parlor organs, very cheap. Inquire at Rossi's Piano Rooms, Averill block.

James McDermont returned to his home in Brookfield yesterday, after passing a few days in the city as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Tilden of upper Prospect street.

Miss Merle Grafton, who has been at her home here since the close of Goddard seminary, where she is a student, left last night for a visit with relatives in Milford, Mass.

Walter H. Cox of Dover, N. H., a well known grand circuit driver, who with Mrs. Cox has been a guest of Mayor J. M. Boutwell of Montpelier for a few days, called on friends in Barre Sunday and Monday.

Postal clerks who went down to defeat in the recent bowling match for the championship of the federal building entertained their victorious opponents at an enjoyable banquet at Hotel Barre last evening at 8:30 o'clock. Manager J. V. Rowan provided the victors and vanquished with a layout that made the latter forget their defeat and served to quiet, for a time, at least, the natural expressions of exultation manifested by the winners. Capt. James T. Kenefick, Harry Houghton, William Craig and James R. Mackay, having lost their title in the alley finals, acted as hosts, while Capt. John L. Bialie, George W. Gorman, Frank E. Robinson, James Leve and Thomas Garrity, Jr., were the guests. After a very engaging gastronomic contest in which the losers proved that victories may be won elsewhere than on the alleys, there was a brief afterdinner program. Postmaster Gorman presided and remarks were made by both captains as well as some of the men in the ranks.

Members and prospective members of the Granite City Quilting club are to have a special meeting in their pavilion this evening at 7 o'clock.

A special meeting of the Granite City Quilting club will be held in the club pavilion Tuesday evening, Feb. 1, at 7 o'clock. The presence of all members and prospective members is urgently desired.

Carl Burgess, a recent graduate from the Bryant & Stratton school in Boston, is stopping at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Burgess of the Montpelier road. He has a position in the office of the Jones Brothers company.

Charles H. Northrop of Merchant street, who has been detained at home for the past five weeks by illness, was able to resume charge of his trucking business yesterday. Early in January Mr. Northrop was threatened with pneumonia, but latterly he has been making steady progress toward recovery.

The hospital cookbooks have arrived and are now on sale at the following places, at 50c per copy: Tilden Shoe store, Martin's Book store, Mrs. W. F. Shepard's, D. C. Howard's store, South Barre, of Mrs. Randall at the library in Williamstown, of Mrs. Roach at Graniteville and of Mrs. C. H. Lermond at East Barre.

John Hussey of River street, arrested on the complaint of members of his family yesterday, pleaded guilty before Magistrate H. W. Scott to an intoxication charge and paid a $5 fine and costs. Officer Harry Gamble went to River street and arrested Hussey on a warrant issued at the request of Grand Juror William Wisbart.

The third of a series of mid-winter ice races is scheduled to be held on the Wisconsin river in Montpelier Saturday, Feb. 5. There are to be three races, two class A races for horses that have never beaten 41 seconds, and a three-minute class. All purses are to be $25 and admission fees are to be 5c per cent. The races are to start at 1:3